HOMECOMING PEP ASSEMBLY BEST IN YEARS

Mrs. Boyink-you little devil!!

Mrs. Boyink at her best?

Mr. Hickman didn't know Ragedy Ann could be so cruel!!

Police lineup: who belongs to PCN?

But they do this in church do they Mrs. Boyink?

Is it Halloween or Homecoming?

HOME-COMING DANCE LIGHTS THE NIGHT

Stacey, where's Rob?

I try to stand straight up but people keep tilting the room on me.

Oh I wish I were an underclassmen-Jon Lenz!

Who is Toni's date?

Balloons, Balloons, Balloons

The secret to enjoying a dance is a purple balloon

I was harrier With my balloon-Steve Smart.

Oh, how sexy we are?

*Did you bring the lipstick dear?
No, I thought you did.*

Gee, high school is so neat, I've just got to rest.

Steve and Mikki-I'm jealous.

Sarandade me cisco.

What can I say?

HOOME COMING

Does this couple know where they are?

Amy-why so tired?

No dates, huh?

Still looking for a date!

Mike Theune, you stud?

1986 B.C. (Before Connie).

Nicky . . . exited as usual

Junior High dances were more fun.

Two happy sophmores.

DANCE

Everyone enjoying themselves.

Having trouble standing are we Rob?

Pete in rare form?

Who's the girl, Kevin?

What a happy couple!

Perky's Big Adventure!

Americans are boring

Back to the concentration camp

Look ma, I painted my fingernails

Minister's son turns devil

That time of day again

Pep rallies are so much fun

We're glad to have DJ back this year

My imitation of a beaver

I can't wait to graduate

Is school this boring

Friends forever

In memory of MIKE GILBERT

Watch your hands guys

Chris doing work? not for yearbook

Shelley not with Jeff

I think I need a haircut

Don't you dare take my picture!

Gosh Mr. Hesse we've got to stop meeting like this.

Don't we just love Jr. High kids.

Are we having fun yet?

Where's the snow?

SCHUSSES

Wired and ready!

Help get me down from here.

We've just got to get organized.

What do we do when we get to the top?

Did you see those guys?

Who's responsible for this mess?

LAKERS HAVE ANOTHER GREAT CLOSE UP TRIP!

Pretty smiles for a pretty picture.

What a great looking group!

Being a close-upian does weird things to people!

Dave showing off his style to the D.C. women!

Everyone relaxing after a day of touring the city.

Jennifer and one of her many Washington men.

Susan doing her part to support the U.S.

Wake up we're almost home!

Stein looking like a true politician.

Who Are You?

Who are you?
You say you are my friend
and yet
I have to stop and wonder
Who are you?
You claim you are
and promise to be there
but where are you?
when I need you
You laugh at me
and taunt and tease
You're not my friend
Who are you?
I don't know who or where or why
But I do know
I love you

C.C.

LITTLE SISTER

Little sister, when you were born
There was love and fear
Love for you; dear sister
Fear for what was new.

Life is full of changes, dear sister
People grow and learn of pain
But the pain will pass and after
There is a special kind of happiness.

Little sister pain is life
And so is joy
We made it through those times of new and fear.
Now our lives have become full.
Of smiles of joy.

There is still change in life
As well as pain
But happiness will soon
Follow.

Dear sister when do you think of me
In years gone by
Think of joy and love
We shared.
Life goes past the pain
To reach the joys of happiness
That only through love you
Can gain.

Laurie A. Giddens

*To all the little sisters, we do really love you.

IMAGES

IT'S FOR YOU TO DECIDE

He left the bar
jumped into his car
never knowing he'd lose control.

He goes onto a party,
plays Euchre with the guys
drinking beer, schnapps and whiskey, until he had blood shot eyes,
never knowing he'd lose control.

On his way home from the "All-Night-Bach," he got into a serious car crash.
Six-thirty Valentine's Day morning.
the accident took place.
My brother crashed into a tree,
smashing the windshield with his face.

the car was totaled.
His face a complete horror.
His fibula bone protruding from his leg — bleeding intensely.

Was that drink really worth all the pain and anguish that he has brought his wife, who is about to have their first child any day, and his family and friends?

Don't ever think that it won't happen to you!
He is now lying in North Ottawa Community Hospital with 16 pounds of traction and a cast that runs from the top of his thigh to the tip of his foot.

All because he wasn't man enough to admit that he was too drunk to drive. And wouldn't call someone else to come and drive him home.

With the publication of IMAGES, Spring Issue '87, the senior editing staff turn their attention towards graduation day, and the challenges that follow. In doing so, we pass on the well-established tradition of this creative arts magazine to a worthy succession:

Susan Greenbauer
Minda Markle
Noelle Marzuke, and Lorna Sample

Congratulations, and best of luck for the next year.
Under the continued guidance of Mr. Wolbrink, Faculty advisor, you are apt to find success.

Also to be noted are this year's newly accepted seniors:
Laurie Gidens
Beth Houghton, and
Susan Meengs

Despite a limited tenure on staff, their display of talent and commitment did not go unrecognized.

IMAGES is very grateful to Mrs. Chisolm for her invaluable contribution from the printing press; we couldn't do it without you.

We hope the issue provides enjoyable reading!
Sincerely,
John Hackert
Missy Krause, and Shelley Wolbrink,
senior editing staff.

EXCHANGE

Ana Maria Maxia is from Melilla Spain. She wanted to learn more about the U.S. way of life and practice the language more.

While Ana was here she traveled to Arizona, Missouri, and Chicago.

She enjoys playing the piano, guitar. She also likes to read, swim, windsurfing and she had a lot of fun downhill skiing.

Ana hopes to come back to the U.S. and travel around the states.

When she gets back to Spain she is going to go to the University of Madrid. To study to be a Lawyer or an Interpreter.

Stein Bjornstad is from Baerum Norway. His decision to become a exchange student was because he has had a lot of relatives that have been to the U.S. and have had good comments. So he wanted to be a part of the same experiences.

Stein enjoys playing soccer and he likes computers reading and down hill skiing.

While he was in the U.S. he had a chance to go to Close — Up with the school. He also had a chance to travel to Florida, Utah, Chicago.

When he goes back to Norway he must complete his school the go into the military because it is mandatory for all males. After he completes this he hopes to study Technology or Political Science.

He would also love to come back and do some more traveling and find more out about the U.S.

STUDENTS

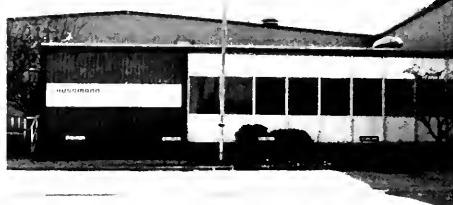

Andrea-Cecilie Sterll is from Copenhagen, Denmark. She really enjoyed the U.S. and found it very interesting.

She was eager to find out about the American way of life.

While she was here she went on Close-Up with the school. She also traveled to Texas, Washington State, and Wyoming.

Cecilie loves photography, reading, and snow skiing. She plans to go to a Photography School when she gets back to Denmark.

She really enjoyed her stay with her host family and hopes to come back in the future.

ADDRESS TO THE SPRING LAKE CLASS OF 1987

BY RONALD VOLLMER

SPRING LAKE VALEDICTORIAN

On the day of Sunday, June 7, at two o'clock this year's graduating class of Spring Lake High School will assemble in the gymnasium. The class of 1987 will be celebrating a joyful, new beginning as well as a all sit together under one roof. We may never be together again, but the memories we have created together will last a lifetime.

It won't be soon that we will forget those cold, damp fall days on the football field, cheering our fellow Lakers on to victory. We will always remember the Friday football game predictions of social studies teacher Robert Halmond, the inspirational lessons of coach Tom Grabinski, and the warm smile of Mr. Ed Peterson. And then there was little Mike Gilbert, who was the biggest Dallas Cowboy fan of us all. To know him was to love him, and we all did. Now as we leave the past and look ahead, there is a new challenge in front of each of us. we must create new, better, and more memories. As we leave high school and go our separate ways, whether it be to college or work, we have a very important obligation to fulfill. That obligation is to shape the future and make the the world a finer, safer place for generations to come. We have the power through our own hard work and dedication to unlock the dreams of today into the realities of tomorrow. And no matter what part of the globe our endeavors take us to, we will always have one thing in common; our pride as Lakers.

ADDRESS TO THE SPRING LAKE CLASS OF 1987 BY CHARLIE MARKLE SPRING LAKE SALUTATORIAN

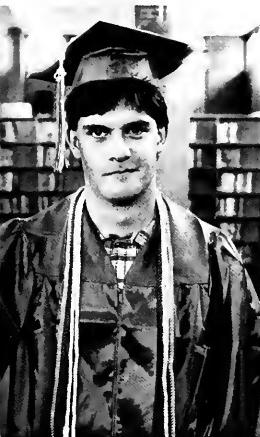

As the days until commencement tick away, the Spring Lake High School Class of 1987 has ample time to contemplate its past. Let us, in this time of retrospective focus, save a sacred place for our school experience. School allowed us the environment and the shaping tools for a true metamorphis to take place. It is a place where tomboys sparkled into prom queens, where wishing sandal stars were transformed into varsity gridiron heroes, and where the dreaded cooties gave way to the wonders of love. School is where kazoos evolved into instruments in stirring band concerts, where childhood was transposed into citizenship. All the while we were learning that there is a thriving world out there with as many resources as we can take advantage. And upon graduation, a wonderful milestone in our lives, let us take a moment to reflect and then rejoice, because the best is truly yet to come!

Your senior portrait is special, and it should look it. Why should you limit yourself to the familiar head and shoulders look of the underclass school pictures you've had for years, when you can have a senior portrait that is much more interesting and meaningful because it reflects your personality, interests and life style.

Tennis lover Chris Jansiewicz wanted just such a portrait. So we decided to photograph her on the tennis court, but from an entirely new angle — twelve feet overhead! The result is a unique and compelling portrait of special significance.

Chris's senior portrait is only one example of the exciting and "different" things we've been doing for students from all over West Michigan. Whether you want an environmental portrait or a studio portrait, something traditional or "far out," we are the people to see. Let us create a special portrait of you!

Interesting, isn't it? With all of the brands that have glutted the marketplace, the Apple® IIe is still the world's most popular personal computer.

Think it's an accident? Or do you think it has something to do with the world's largest software base, IIe's incredible flexibility and expandability?

That's what we think, too. And we're here right now, waiting to show you a few other reasons the IIe is
